Dear family and friends,

Another season is upon us. We are ending the beautiful summer months and heading toward autumn, time of rich harvest for our Willamette valley - blueberries, apples, hops, grapes, hazelnuts. It is a delight to watch the rich soil produce the bounty in our region of the world.

We focused on COMMUNITY in our last issue of Reflections. Today, I am pondering the important concept of PRESENCE, the monastic witness that God is present in our world. By our lives and work, our Benedictine community is proclaiming Christ and the Good News of the Gospel to the world, within and beyond the monastery. By our presence, we endeavor to extend the reign of God to all those we meet. We bring our monastic values to our work and prayer, to all of our guests and visitors, to all who are searching for God and for meaning in life.

The Sisters in our Queen of Angels Monastery gather four times a day to praise God in the name of all of you – you can count on that! There is a dependable solidity in knowing the main work of the monastery is presence and praise morning, noon, evening and night. The monastery is rooted here in this particular place, praying for all those who come to our door and for all the needs of the world.

PRESENCE and PRAISE is present tense! Only in the moment, given to God at this time. Daily we remember all of you, praying for the intentions that you send us for the sorrow and joy in your lives. You can count on that!

We have initiated a new place to be present on the monastery grounds. St. Scholastica Garden – right next to the giant Sequoia Tree (a constant reminder of stability and healing in our lives). The garden celebrates the elements of our legacy, our presence over these 138 years of our history: the flag, bell, peace pole, bench and the Sequoia tree that Sister Protasia Schindler so lovingly planted in 1893. The St. Scholastica Garden is a place of reflection, a place to meet God – our constant gift of PRESENCE and PRAISE for all who come for solace, love and peace.

O, please come and experience this garden – it is fresh and new, planted with a rich variety of God’s good vegetation.

We send you blessings for this season, for all the days of your lives four times each day. Send us your intentions and join us when you can. We welcome you! You can count on that!

Blessing,

Sister Jane Hibbard, SNJM

Judith Valente Retreat

On Saturday, June 22, Judith Valente, author and poet, gave a day retreat on “Being Truly Alive: Living the Rule of St. Benedict Day to Day,” to the Queen of Angels Monastery oblates, the Mount Angel Abbey oblates, and the Sisters of Queen of Angels Monastery.

Judith has written four spirituality books, including, Atchison Blue: A Search for Silence, A Spiritual Home, and a Living Faith, The Art of Pausing: Meditations for the Overworked and Overwhelmed (with Brother Paul Quenon of the Abbey of Gethsemani, in Kentucky); and most recently and used by the Queen of Angels Oblates for their book of study this past year, How To Live: What the Rule of St. Benedict Teaches Us about Happiness, Meaning, and Community.

Judith was very well received by all and we hope Judith will come back to Queen of Angels Monastery for future presentations. To purchase copies of Judith’s books, please visit her website at www.judithvalente.com

Here are three of the reflection questions that were discussed at the presentation:

• How can I consciously practice less talking, more listening, more intentional observing?

• In what ways am I currently sleepwalking through life?

• How can I wake up?

Spiritual Directors at Shalom at the Monastery

Often we are asked if there are spiritual directors available at Shalom at the Monastery for one to one meetings. The answer is “Yes, we have three experienced directors.” They are: Sister Dorothy Jean Beyer, Sister Joan Pokorny, and Evelyn Wemhoff

Sister Joan Pokorny, OSB
Sister Joan Pokorny, both a spiritual director and a supervisor of spiritual directors, is an experienced companion for those seeking God and searching for a meaningful life. She leads the monthly Supervision Program as well as provides direction for those on private directed retreats.

Sister Dorothy Jean Beyer, OSB
Sister Dorothy Jean is both a spiritual director and a supervisor of spiritual directors. She brings the wisdom of monastic spirituality to her practice, especially the art of “listening with the ear of the heart.” (Prologue of the Rule of St. Benedict) She has been a Benedictine Sister for 56 years. If you wish to contact Sister Dorothy Jean, please call (503) 845-2556

Evelyn Wemhoff
Evelyn Wemhoff received her initial training and experience at the Paul Robb Spirituality Institute in Chicago in the 70’s. Her recognition of the unique spiritual journey of herself and each individual person convinced her to give priority to this work with whatever else she was doing. Presently she is working at Shalom at the Monastery. You can contact her at: (971) 273-0700

You can meet the three directors at the Spiritual Direction Information Session on Saturday, November 16, 2019, 1 - 2:30 p.m. in Agatha Hall, which is in the Hospitality Center. Please RSVP (503) 845-2556
In June, I was privileged to attend Judith Valente’s Retreat Day with our sisters and oblates. The morning session was “Yearning for Life: On Waking up.” The afternoon session was entitled “Finding our Place in the great Benedictine Narrative.”

Both sessions were delightful and instructive because of the topics and the varied ways that she presented the material. We opened with a Visio Divina, which portrayed lovely images on the screen and was accompanied by appropriate music. Judith also used poetry, stories, and modern songs to illustrate her ideas. Her own personality is joyful, full of life, and engages the listener. I felt that she was speaking directly to me!

In the morning she asked us to “Wake Up” by listening to those around us, our bodies, and our wonder of the cosmos. In order to wake up, we must listen and pay attention; perhaps greet the day with praise and make the sign of the cross on our lips. I realized that I often walk around in a fog, not aware of the wonder of God’s creation and the beauty of others all around me.

Judith shared her life experiences as a journalist for national papers and magazines, writer for PBS - TV and as an oblate connected with the monastic community at Atchison, Kansas. The sisters demonstrated to her the power and relevance of the Rule for her everyday life.

In the afternoon session we watched an interview with her and Fr. Paul Quenon who is a Trappist. Together they wrote a book entitled “The Art of Pausing - Meditation for the Overworked and Overwhelmed.” The Haikus and reflections caused me to ponder about life around me and within me. I highly recommend this book.

Judith called us to begin each day on the road to conversion. Benedict implies that changing our lives is a daily struggle - we fall down, and then get back up. The elderly sisters I live with are mentors for me in the labor of love; they remain full of joy and faithfulness and so I have the courage to follow in their footsteps.
Judith’s first presentation was “Yearning for Life: On Waking Up.” My heart was awakened when Judith began with the idea that the Rule of Saint Benedict is a great poem from Saint Benedict, who is our soul friend, our anam cara. God is speaking to us through the Rule of Saint Benedict and is calling us to “Listen” with openness and freedom. The word, “Listen,” is not a passive endeavor but it implies action on our part. We are challenged to follow the way of the Gospel. Freedom of Spirit calls us to develop inwardly and serve outwardly, following the Beatitudes.

Judith challenged us by saying that if we want to be a good Benedictine monastic or oblate, we must wake up. We must wake up so we can be truly alive and to see and hear fully the cries of our world. She encouraged us to be engaged in the rapture of life. Our commission as Benedictines is to be fully alive. One of her reflection questions was: “In what ways am I currently sleepwalking through life?”

Among the tools to help us on this journey are courage, graciousness, strength, community and being with and for others. Kindness, self-care and care of all creation have a place in this venture. Prayer, personal and communal, fills, directs and enhances our lives, and unites us with all of the people of the earth to become gracious people. To be more attentive to all and to be aware of realities, large and small, challenges, invigorates and encourages us, trusting the ways of God’s call into the future. Many truths are given to us in the Scriptures and Rule of Saint Benedict. Let us be more attentive to these important and life-changing truths that come into our lives. Another one of her reflection questions was: “In the coming months, how can I consciously practice less talking, more listening, more intentional observing.”

This was a powerful and enriching day of retreat for me. Thank you, Judith Valente, and I hope you will come again.
Years ago, while ambling through the monastery cemetery, I looked at all the head stones and instead of seeing graves I envisioned angels. After that revelation, the name Queen of Angels Monastery (QAM) took on new meaning. In retrospect, that heart image is what I tried to share while walking the grounds with Judith Valente during her recent visit to the monastery.

Judith has been visiting Benedictine monasteries and abbeys across America as she absorbs the rhythm of each place and how they uniquely manifest the Charism found in the Rule. Father Benedict’s teaching to listen with the ear of the heart eventually morphs into a life lived with heart. Sr. Alberta’s history of QAM, Rooted in Faith, will forever keep the sisters’ 135+ year story alive. As an Oblate of a mere 10 years all I could contribute to Judith’s “research” was a voice of one who has encountered the Creator under giant Sequoia and Angels in the cemetery.

So I told her of my tears watering the labyrinth I was grooming one August morning as I heard the bells tolling when Sr. Agatha entered eternal life; and of Sr. Blanche’s rosaries; Immaculata’s cakes; Corinne’s deep sea diving; Joeine’s lavender wreath that never died; Antoinette welcoming me back to the Catholic Church, and Jill’s friendship punctuated with wine from her family vineyard. There is a different kind of history that saturates holy ground. It comes from individual stories witnessed in a community of deep and abiding faith and lives on in everyone who was touched in those 138 years and in the years to come.

Angels and Poets

A Poem by Mari Miller

A poet lives in the pause.
Only in the silence
Where words are hidden
Does the heart,
bending over,
Find meaning.
Words unseen
Songs unheard
Are spacious and limitless,
overflowing mystery,
Arousing sleeping angels.

October 2019

In a world of much change and frantic activity, we need time to move to silence within. The Progoff Intensive Journal was designed for you to enter your life with focused attention. The process is one of progressive deepening as it generates an inner momentum and energy. You are led through exercises step-by-step. New perspectives emerge for you to realize continuity, direction and meaning in your life.

January 2020

A new year has arrived. A new decade in this century is here. A new story is unfolding in our personal lives and in the world at large. It is timely to stop and reflect. Ira Progoff describes the Journal process: “we explore the contents and resources of our life. The purpose and style of that exploration is to enable our life to disclose to us what its goals and its meanings are. Regardless of the diverse conclusions we may draw, we are impressed by the quality of the experience that comes to us as individual.” (At a Journal Workshop p.9)

Life Context Workshop (Oct 11-12 / Jan 17-18) is the opportunity for you to learn how to use the Intensive Journal and is a prerequisite for the next workshop. You gain a perspective on your present life and a rich foundation to explore your life as a whole. You will explore who you are most deeply and what your life is trying to become.

Depth Contact Workshop (Oct 13-14 / Jan 19-20) continues your Journal work. You will learn Dr. Progoff’s unique method to develop symbolic experiences and specific ways of working to develop a more meaningful life. With an emphasis of the quiet and deepening atmosphere, the workshop will build processes for future decisions and actions.

Life Integration Workshop (Oct 15-16 / Jan 21-22) gives you the experience of working in the Intensive Journal Workbook as a whole. As you reflect on all the cumulative work, you get insights that can help you move from possibility to actuality.

Evelyn Wemhoff, the workshop leader, was introduced to the Intensive Journal by Ira Progoff, the founder of Dialogue House and the Intensive Journal. She has led the Intensive Journal for more than thirty years. She is a former Benedictine Sister, a retired Mental Health Counselor, retired Director of WomanSpirit Center.

by Rae Parlier, Oblate Director

The oblate year September-May 2019 was a full one. Thanks to professional photographer and oblate Cherie Atiyeh a long, hoped-for oblate photo directory will be available to oblates in September.

In January 2019, we continued the discussion of topics raised at the “Oblates For The Future Symposium” held October 2018 in Cottonwood, Idaho, and where two council members will return in October 2019, to participate in a continuation of this dialogue. The discussion is about how oblates can ensure that Benedictine values will survive into the future with or without monastic community. This topic was also key at our day retreat given by author and speaker Judith Valente on June 22, 2019. It was also a pleasure to meet and have table discussion with nine Mt. Angel Abbey oblates who attended. Using anecdotes and poetry Judith stimulated our thinking about being “awake” and really “seeing” others. She referenced some modern movies and musicals whose lyrics and themes point to how our Benedictine values are relevant and are being portrayed in these times. Yet, with aging oblates as well as monastics the challenge is how we can bridge to the younger generation.

Our Fourth Focus Group meeting consisting of oblates, oblate council members, Sr. Jane Hibbard and sisters took place on July 29, 2019. These meetings have fostered communication and coordination between sisters and oblates and has led to partnering in QAM ministries and needs.

In Formation, we have three Candidates preparing to make oblation in the Fall, and three Inquirers who will become Candidates. We have a strong Formation Committee who has been able to connect interested Inquirers who live far from Mt. Angel, with an oblate who serves as a mentor.

Our book for study next year is “The Universal Christ” by Richard Rohr. There is a very good companion guide for groups that promises to challenge us in listening deeply and manifesting Christ in our lives.

Interested in becoming an oblate? Join us for a free information session on August 17, 2019 from 10am to Noon in the Chapter Room.

Call 503-845-2556 to reserve your space.
In Memoriam

Sister Jeanette von Herrmann, OSB

January 4, 1946 – June 6, 2019

Adopted from Obituary of the Monastery of St. Gertrude, Cottonwood, ID

“God is still in our midst and calling us by the Spirit to a life of faith.”

Sister Jeanette von Herrmann, OSB, was born into eternal life at 8:20 p.m. on June 6, 2019. She was 73 years old and had been a Benedictine sister for 38 years. Sister Jeanette will be remembered for her gift of hospitality to hosted groups at Spirit Center, her ability to relate to every member of the community, and deep love of Benedictine life.

Sister Jeanette was born Joanne to her parents Otto and Doris in San Francisco, California, on January 4, 1946. She grew up in San José, California, where she attended public elementary schools and Catholic high school. She attended Marymount Palos Verdes College for two years. She entered religious life at the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary on September 8, 1965, making First Profession on May 25, 1968, and Final Profession on September 8, 1973. Because of a strong desire to live monastic life, she transferred to Queen of Angels Monastery in Mount Angel, Oregon, in June 1979; she had met the community while attending summer school at Mt. Angel Seminary, graduating with a master’s degree in theology in 1979. At Queen of Angels she made Monastic Profession on August 15, 1981.

Sister Jeanette’s ministries over the years include teaching elementary and high school and serving as director of admission at Marymount Palos Verdes College, pastoral associate at St. Joseph Parish in Cupertino, California, and director of religious education at St. Paul Parish in Silverton, Oregon. She also gave retreats at Shalom Prayer Center in Mount Angel, Oregon. From 1987 to 1995, she was a graduate student in biblical studies at Catholic University, Washington, D.C., where she also served as department secretary. She was elected prior of Queen of Angels Monastery in 1995 and served until 1999. In 1999, she went back to Washington, D.C., to write her dissertation on the Book of Esther and was awarded a Ph.D. in Biblical Studies/Old Testament in May 2004. When she returned to Queen of Angels in 2008, she engaged in various ministries. In 2015 she served as oblate director and secretary/treasurer for Queen of Angels Monastery and its subsidiary corporations.

In September 2016 Sister Jeanette sought permission to begin her journey to transfer to the Monastery of St. Gertrude, Cottonwood, Idaho, where she prayed, lived, and worked until her untimely death. During her years at St. Gertrude’s, she served as hostess to hosted groups at the Spirit Center, gave a popular retreat entitled “The Spirituality of Seuss,” and assisted the Spirit Center team with spiritual direction and hospitality. She also served as chair of the LISTEN III Committee for revisions to St. Gertrude’s constitutions.

Sister Jeanette was especially present to the seniors on St. Gertrude’s assisted living wing, spending time with them, taking them on shopping trips, and enjoying the antics of the second floor therapy pet “Stormy” the cat. On Thursday evenings she often joined the “Loosely Knit” group of sisters and oblates for knitting and crocheting and sharing together.

Sister Jeanette is survived by her two brothers Joseph and his wife Sandy of Sonora, California, and Jim and his wife Suzanne of Savannah, Georgia —and her monastic community at the Monastery of St. Gertrude and her monastic community of Queen of Angels Monastery, Mount Angel, Oregon. The Rosary Vigil was held on Sunday, July 21, and the Mass of Christian Burial on Monday, July 22, in the Monastery of St. Gertrude Chapel. A Memorial Mass was held on Saturday, July 27, in the chapel at Queen of Angels Monastery. Memorial gifts can be made to the Benedictine Sisters of Mount Angel.

Reflections
The Benedictine Sisters are extremely grateful for the Oktoberfest grant received this year. The funds were used to help design and build the St. Scholastica Garden – the center piece of our new Prayer Walk ministry. Our deepest and most sincere thanks to the members of the Oktoberfest Board of Directors for this year’s grant, and for their continued support of Queen of Angels Monastery and our monastic community.

Thank You Oktoberfest!

2nd Annual Monastery Barbecue a Huge Success

Over 80 guests and visitors joined us for our second annual Monastery Barbecue. The event was held on Sunday, July 14. After Mass, guests joined the sisters in a blessing of the newly planted St. Scholastica Garden.

When the blessing concluded, everyone enjoyed a delicious barbecue with hamburgers, hot dogs, and even ice cream sandwiches! If you missed the event this year, mark your calendar for next year’s barbecue on Sunday, July 12, 2020.

Thank you to everyone that came!
We often hear or read stories of longtime donors or friends leaving life-changing gifts to the organizations they loved and cherished. The impact that these gifts have on small organizations, like ours, is remarkable. These gifts are made possible through thoughtful and organized estate planning. They require the guidance and assistance of qualified estate planners and attorneys. More importantly, they require the participation and engagement of the whole family.

If you receive this magazine and read these stories, then the Benedictine Sisters at Queen of Angels Monastery have touched your life in some way. We hope that their influence on your life is remembered as you make your estate plans. We also hope that you share that story with your family. In fact, we encourage you to bring your family out to the monastery so they can meet the sisters that made a difference in your life. Guests and visitors often speak of the deep spirituality felt on the grounds and in the historic buildings of Queen of Angels Monastery.

If you’d like to learn more about the impact your bequest, estate, or other planned gift can have in the lives of the Benedictine Sisters of Mt. Angel, please contact me at our Mission Advancement Office by calling (503) 845-2556 or by email michael@benedictine-srs.org

Thank You, Society of St. Benedict Members!

The Society of St. Benedict is composed of donors who give monthly. Monthly giving is easy, convenient, and completely controlled by the donor. You can easily manage the amount, duration, and even the area you want your gift to go. Society of Saint Benedict members help build a solid, sustainable foundation for the future of Queen of Angels Monastery.

Reflections
One

One heart open but empty
One song written but unsung
One call heard but unheeded
One fire ignited but never consumed
One moment of sweetness untasted
One moment of grace unrecognized
One moment in time when all changed
